

At some point in your life you may find yourself entangled in an inescapable state of mind — a growing cycle.
The road out may be painful but it must be overcome within the self.
Which path will you seek?

As I
Walk
This Land
I Wonder Why

Who am I?
 Am I just a reflection in the mirror,
 a parental carbon copy, or just another pretty face? I am a reflection that speaks to me and tells me that I accept or reject that image of myself. I exist as I am and what I see is the physical and the physical is me. Yet there is more to me.

There exists a need to express myself to others, to allow others to see my image and to accept it or reject it just as I have.

Life sometimes is meaningless; my ordinary activities, my daily problems cause boredom and frustration. Sometimes I have to get away from it all, sometimes I have the need to fill the void that hurts, that makes me lonely. I must decide, I must choose how I can fill my life with meaning.

Whenever I need to leave it all behind or feel the need to get away, I find a quiet place far from the human race. Out in the country. Before the breathing air is gone, before the sun is just a bright spot in the night time, out where the river likes to run. I stand alone and take back something worth remembering. (Three Dog Night)
I sought the personal, the unique, and found myself changing.

I want to be one of the beautiful people. I want to be loved. But sometimes I don't see others as beautiful, and I'm not seen by them as beautiful. Because I see a little, can I go deeply enough to see totally? I have an urge to be filled, to feel good inside, to feel I belong, to feel that I am worth something, to be really free, to expand my mind and my heart.

I am alone.
I am influenced by sights, sounds, persons, events, values, meanings - - history. And yet it is I who must choose. It is I who must be;
it is I who must live.

How do I know who or what to choose? There are so many choices to choose from, some real and yet some so very unreal. What am I to become? What am I to do? I cannot remain as I am now; I must move, change, become.

Because I am different, because I think differently, because I dress and act differently, and because I am so sensitive; I feel life and experience the meaning of persons. I am seen as weird. I am mistrusted by adults and by my own peers.

I cannot allow injustice, hatred, discrimination, poverty and war to continue to be destructive of man and freedom, to be destructive of myself, my values, my friends. I must speak out; I must act - violently if necessary since this seems to be the only language that some will accept.

Who I am today is reaching toward who I will be tomorrow. What I appear to be today and the way I will appear to be tomorrow will change. A new self continues to emerge - - to be accepted and to be loved by myself and by others.

Where do I go? Follow the river - - Where do I go? Follow the sun - - Where is the something, where
Is the someone, that tells me
Why I live and die?
Why do I live? Why do I die?
Tell me why
Tell me where Tell me why

(Hair)

As I look around me, not understanding what I see, I can't help but wonder is there any time left for me? How will we explain it to our children - the water dead, the river red? America the beautiful, what happened? Once a beholding beauty, now a mark of man's ignorance. Destroying the environment endangers all life; the future only holds death for all. However, technology pushes on continuing to create even greater problems.

We are but a tiny sphere cast in an endless sea of space where interactions among the universe are necessary yet within our own planetary boundaries man cannot cooperatively interact amongst his own kind. Thus wars exist.
The superior intelligence of man has lead to the many unnecessary deaths of others. How long can man survive when all the pins are down?
It is a useless struggle.

Sometimes I cry if I stop to think about it for I found out I've got to live for today because you can't promise me tomorrow. The air has smog, the rivers have suds, the land has people, houses, factories, cars, garbage - - land is limited, but people are forever until nature gets fed up - - then people are no more.

The choice was made ; mankind lost out.

I reach;
Can't touch.
You aren't there. I had a dream.
You reached too
But you were nothing but a hand.
What is a hand?
It was made to pluck flowers for my hair,
Hold my face,
Caress my lips,
To be soft and loving,
To write sonnets in honor of our love,
To embrace me when I'm depressed.
It was a nightmare.
I could touch but wouldn't.
Your hand was dirty, calloused, and lying in a pool of blood,
With a rifle for a body.

(Vivianne Schaefer)

Wake up foolish people,
Wake up from your dream.
Can't you see what has happened?
The whole human race,
Yes the whole human race needs help.
The people are dying,
The people are crying, for so many years
But no one hears.
I can't take it no more,
The people are hating
Hurting their brothers.
They don't understand,
They can't understand.

Hail Freedom!

*Look around, can't anybody see?
Just what's going on, can't you take time for me?
Just to feel what is real.
If you do then you'll know that we got a real deal.*

They're killing everybody,
 I wish it weren't true.
 They say we got to make war
 Or the economy will fall through.
 But if we don't stop soon
 We won't be around anymore.
 They're ruining this world for you and for me.
 The big heads of state, won't let us be free.
 They made the rules once,
 But it didn't work out.
 Now we must try again before they kill us off.
 We don't want to die,
 Please let's change it all.
 Let's just love one another
 Let's show peace for each other.
 We can make it happen
 We can change this world
 Let's make it happen.
 Come on.
 It's up to me.
 It's up to you.
 Can't stand it no more
 It better end soon, my friend.

Friendship cannot be hurried. It takes time to ripen. It needs a background of humorous, wearisome, or even tragic events shared together, a certain tract of memories shared in common, so that you know that your own life and your companion's have really moved for some time in the same channel.

It needs interchange of books, meals together, discussion of one another's whims with mutual friends to gain a proper prospective. It is set in a rich haze of half-remembered occasions, sudden glimpses, ludicrous pranks, unsuspected observations, midnight confidences when heart spoke to candid heart.

(Christopher Morley)

*I have nothing to share with you but my life.
I have nothing to experience with you but my love.
This is all,
Is all enough?*

(Unknown)

Love rejected
Hurts so much more Than Love rejecting.
They act like they Don't love their country.
No,
What it is,
Is they found out
Their country
Don't love them.

(Lucille Clifton)

If a child lives with criticism, He learns to condemn.

If a child lives with hostility, He learns to fight.

If a child lives with ridicule, He learns to be shy.

If a child lives with shame, He learns to feel guilty.

If a child lives with tolerance, He learns to be patient.

If a child lives with encouragement, He learns to be confident.

If a child lives with praise, He learns to appreciate.

If a child lives with fairness, He learns justice.

If a child lives with security, He learns to have faith.

If a child lives with approval, He learns to like himself.

*If a child lives with acceptance and friendship,
He learns to find love in the world.*

(Dorthy Law Nolte)

Shall this child ever know the potential of his mind? He looks to be so empty of self-directed life. Will the death of the university release the chains restraining his potential for being, leaving him to discover the energy source behind those eyes, or will they be sealed forever along with the concept of a true university?

I fear that, like those before him, he will become stifled, frustrated, confined, oppressed. That's what it has been, a relationship that has attempted and possibly succeeded in closing minds to the deep gloomy ranks of the apathetic.

Will this child also be a product of W.M.U., an institute dedicated to the principles of manufacturing scholars, mathematicians, and technicians — pretty people with vacant smiles who know but too well how to exist in our society. Or is it possible that this child will build his world from truth and compassion, knowing in his heart that it is free for all to hold.

Could he, as a student at Western, find such truth and compassion of which to build his world? Certainly he couldn't find it here today. W.M.U. has failed as a stimulus for truth, it is cold and impersonal. Like a warm body, love given is love received, W.M.U., gives no warmth and it receives no warmth.

Why must he carry on our struggle for a breath of freedom against a senseless plan to protect us from ourselves. The time is now for those with any hope for universal freedom. He seems to sense the immediacy at hand, but you, the manipulator, must awaken from your long cold slumber and rejoin us on a planet capable of love and compassion. Stand with this child as he reaches out for the truth and do not be afraid of what is there for it is only the truth —

Reaching another person, and becoming one with another friendship and love is not a goal to be gained, a prize to be won, a game to be played but a process - - a process of knowledge, involvement, giving, and receiving, a process which characterizes life not as competition but as sharing.

Now that we're all here, we really ought to get to know each other better. The need to share the real you with someone, you know? Hey, can you hear me?

Are you even listening? Is anybody listening? Does anybody care?

*We must stand up now
For tomorrow's too late.
We have waited this long
For the world to be safe.
Maybe we are waiting
For things to get better,
Before they get worse.
But how much longer
Can we afford to wait
While the whole world
Is going to waste?*

As I walk this land, I wonder why,
God created you and I.
Why some must live and some must die.
Why some don't give and some just lie.
But who's to say it's not you or I?

Fight Love Pollution...

Be safe, not sorry. All that may stand between you and Venereal Disease, the number one epidemic polluting the nation is a TROJAN brand prophylactic.

This year over 2½ million Americans, more than half below the age of 25, will contract V.D. Don't be one of them... a TROJAN, just one twentieth of an ounce of prevention, is really worth 4,800,000 units of antibiotic cure... ask your local pharmacists for TROJAN brand prophylactics.

No, Katie . . . this isn't pornographic. This was an opportunity for students at Western to get themselves into their own yearbook. What better way than to let them do it themselves.

Hi, I'm little Teepsch O'Oldrich.

Of all the people today I saw, none was greater than the noble outlaw.

Once upon a time there lived some young little boys and girls who dreamed of visiting the enchanted university. Their teachers told them that if they wished hard enough that some day the great fairy prince just might grant them their wish. Sure enough, the great and noble Fairy Prince Miller granted their wish. Without delay the children set forth on their journey to the enchanted university. Upon arrival at the famed student union they stopped to feast upon the delicacies of the snack bar and to rest their little feet. While chatting away over hostess twinkies and 7UP's a great and mysterious wizard approached them wishing to perform great deeds of trickery before their very eyes. With a magic camera and a shutter release he went about showing the young innocent children how one could take pictures of himself! Will they all live happily ever after?

A circular arrangement of "seniorss" forms the top half of a circle, with the text curving around the top and sides. A horizontal line of "seniorss" crosses the middle of the circular arrangement. A vertical line of "seniorss" crosses the middle of the horizontal line, creating a cross shape. The background is a light gray gradient.

If these steps are to be conquered, one must confront them one at a time.

To savor each for its own individual riches,

To discover each intricate crevice and to marvel
its endless existence,

To experience its very being and to step on to the next - -

thoughts by David Moore

Tim Ambrose — "I would not have any one adopt my mode of living on any account; for, besides that before he has fairly learned it I may have found out another for myself, I desire that there be as many different persons in the world as possible; but I would have each one be very careful to find out and pursue his own way, and not his father's or his mother's or his neighbor's instead." (Henry David Thoreau)

Cindy Metzger — "To win the game is great, to play the game is greater, but to love the game is greatest." (Unknown)

Tom Cannon — "Nothing's free; somebody pays." (W.J.C.)

Bev Hevel — “the wilderness calls — and in the snow are tracks that lead us on . . .” (Gwen Frostic)

Who's Who

Larry Rebert — “Sometimes you’ll have weak moments when it seems better to fall into the pattern of life about, then to wait and work for something you cannot name.”

Bruce Foerch — "The world problem is the individual problem; if the individual is at peace, has happiness, has great tolerance, and an intense desire to help, then the world problem as such ceases to exist." (Krishnamurti)

Gary Harris — "Play for more than you can afford to lose and you will learn the game." (Churchill)

Kathy Stannis — "I am not interested so much in what I do with my hands or words as what I do with my feelings. I want to live from the inside out not from the outside in." (Hugh Prather)

Janet Lowry — "La vie est un pont: traverse-le, mais n'y fixe pas ta demeure." (Anonymous)

Judy Hallam — "Life is what we are alive too."

Cindy Hodge — “. . . it is only important to love the world, not to despise it, not for us to hate each other, but to be able to regard the world and ourselves and all beings with love, admiration and respect.” (Herman Hesse)

Mary Bowman — “Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story.” (Unknown)

Mary Reese — "Within each person there is an inner self which even our closest associates will never fully understand."

Luanne Godfrey — "You're as beautiful as you feel."

Robert Skolnick — "No one exists just for the sake of being here. We must contribute to the progress of man, 'Morality and Knowledge Being Necessary,' in order to justify our existence."

Mary Cutler — "This above all: to thine own self be true. And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou cans't not then be false to any man." (Shakespeare's Hamlet)

Terry Nihart — "Lost somewhere between sunrise and sunset — an opportunity, an idea, a chance. No rewards offered — For in time they are gone forever."

Jim Ross — “. . . we are guests of existence, travelers between two stations. We must discover security within ourselves.” (B. Pasternak)

Van A. Weimer — “Never give in! Never give in! Never, Never, Never — in nothing great or small, large or petty — never give in except to convictions of honour and good sense.” (Winston Churchill)

Ann Watt — “I have spread my dreams under your feet, tread softly, because you tread on my dreams.” (Keats)

Bob Palmer — "Service to our fellow man is the key to Life's Happiness."

Phillip Morse

Mary Ann Elizabeth Meyer — "To each is given a bag of tools, An hourglass and a book of rules; And each must build before he's grown, A stumbling block or a stepping stone."

Sue Pfeiffle — "Look to this day, for it is the very life of life. In its brief course lie all the varieties and realities of your existence:

The glory of action

The bliss of growth

The splendor of beauty.

For yesterday is but a dream. And tomorrow is only a vision. But today well lived makes every yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope. Look well, therefore, to this day."

Gary Bolyard

Joan Bauer — "The happiness of life is made up of minute fractions — the little, soon forgotten charities of a smile or a kiss, a kind look or word, a heartfelt compliment."

R. David Eick — "Two roads diverged in a wood, and I — I took the one less traveled by, And that has made all the difference."
(Robert Frost)

Deb Rayburn — "To be creative means to experience life in one's own way, to perceive from one's own person, to draw upon one's own resources, capacities, roots. It means facing life directly and honestly; courageously searching for and discovering grief, joy, suffering, pain, struggle, conflict and finally inner solitude." (Clark Moustakes)

Mickey Mason — "It is a denial of the Human Heritage to dogmatically assert that a person should make no attempt to influence his future. A man should engage in a conscious and continuous dialogue on where he is heading, where he wishes to go, and then attempt to so arrange his institutions as to make possible the latter. Only then can his institutions truly serve his basic needs." (Mancinko)

Rich Fowler — "Don't worry about tomorrow 'cause it'll get here anyway." (Anonymous)

Kappa Phi is a spirit. It was born to unite young college women in a common purpose of strengthening their lives so that in everyday living they will be able to stand true to Christian principles. Belief in Jesus Christ as the Son of God and perfect example for the children of God, is the basic concept for which the club stands. By strong friendship and the close ties of a sisterhood, the Kappa Phi Club will help its members achieve the qualities of a Christian life.

Since becoming Christ-like is not a one-step process, but a continual "growing towards", human beings need to be in constant contact with that which will aid them in this growth. The Kappa Phi Club has a two-fold purpose: first, to educate and thereby enrich and deepen personal religious lives, and, second, to educate in ways which will enable Kappa Phi girls to live their Christianity — through church and community services.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is an inter-denominational organization offering Christian fellowship to the students on Western's campus. The purpose of I.V.C.F. is to lead others to a personal faith in Jesus Christ and to strengthen the Christian student's own spiritual life through Bible study, prayer, social activities and sharing the student's faith in Christ.

"O Sun, my quick coquetting eye, my red-haired hound, sniff out all quarries that I love, give them swift chase, tell me all that you've seen on earth, all that you've heard, and I shall pass them through my entrails' secret forge till slowly, with profound caresses, play and laughter, stones, water, fire, and earth shall be transformed to spirit, and the mud-winged and heavy soul, freed of its flesh, shall like a flame serene and fade in sun."

Your friend is your needs answered. He is your field which you sow with love and reap with thanksgiving. And he is your board and your fireside. For you come to him with your hunger, and you seek him for peace.

(Kahil Gibran)

SHER - I've WALKED this
AND I WANDERED
Now what!

The end has finally come. The final pages of Yearbook 72 have been shipped off. Some of us found out it was quite a job to express ourselves in 464 pages. But never fail, you, the staff got yourselves together to put out a fantastic book. Yearbook 72, I believe, really expresses my personal feelings of the situation we are now faced with.

I want to thank all the people who kept me company during those long nights at deadline time — Ferg, Peg, Nancy, Brung, and Tammie. Also, I want to send a special thank you to my concerned staff members who devoted their precious time and effort for one hellava book. To Jerry Elmore, a fantastic representative, thank you; Stevens Studio thanks for a great job. I cannot express the thank you that my tremendous troop of photographers should receive, I just hope they learned something from their assignments, you did a great job. Thank you to the people who shared and experienced with myself the process of organizing and publishing a yearbook. Bob and Kirk, thank you for giving your best efforts into selling the book; Mr. Freeman, thank you for the little bits of advise that kept me going. And lastly, a warm Thank You to my roommates and close friends that kept me together. It's been quite a trip.

I wonder why?

I like swimming with friends and running thru fields.

I like reflections.

I like free floating clouds and

I like tiny green plants.

I like funny smoke stacks and free balloons.

I like puppies and

the smell of dewy flowers. I like the sunlight as it dances on swift rivers.

I like creating messes and collecting things.

making shadow figures and

I like being by myself and watching the clear, clean waters of a mountain stream flow by.

I like gooy carmel apples in the hot summertime and just sitting around doing nothing.

I like wearing big clothes.

I like talking and playing with my father

*I like the sunlight when it peeks through the trees onto the forest floor...
and settles across the peaceful waterfront.*

I like getting tied up with friends and . . .

lonely horses and birds on fence posts.

I like making faces and being happy.

I wonder why nobody likes me.

A bird calls someone is born.

A bell rings someone dies.
(Rod McKuen)

And now

I have ceased to wonder why,

Now I have ceased to wonder why for Nobody Ever Wins.
